

ACUTE TRAUMATIC SPINAL CORD INJURY SYMPOSIUM

ROBERT JONES & AGNES HUNT HOSPITAL, OSWESTRY

16th March 2017

Programme

Lecture Theatre, Institute of Orthopaedics

- 8:30- 9:00 Registration in the Institute of Orthopaedics Foyer
- 9:00-9:05 Welcome
- 9:05-9:30 Applied Anatomy: Spine & Spinal Cord Clinical; Implications of Cord damage Dr J DeLieu
- 9:30-9:55 Pre-Hospital Care of the acutely injured Mr P Harrison
- 10:00 –10:25 Subtle Clinical Diagnostic signs in the Semi-conscious and Unconscious Patient and Pitfalls in the Management of the Acutely Injured patient with cord damage Mr M McClelland
- 10:30-10:55 Coffee Break
- 11:00-11:30 Subtle & Manifest Radiological Signs of Column & Cord Injuries Dr V Pullicino
- 11:30-11:55 Nice guidelines in Acute Spinal Injuries Mr B Gardner
- 12:00-12:30 Incidence and causes of neurological deterioration following SCI Mr N Todd
- 12:30-13:20 Lunch
- 13:20-14:00 Management of the Injured Spine with and without neurological damage: Significance of Malalignment, Canal Encroachment and Cord Compression and need for further research Professor W El Masry
- 14:00-14:25 Respiratory Management of the Tetraplegic and the Paraplegic Patient Mr N Kumar
- 14:25-14:50 Urological Management of the SCI Patient Mr J Chowdhury
- 14:50-15:00 Discussions
- 15:00-15:25 Tea
- 15:30-16:30 Multidisciplinary Team Management of Multi-system Physiological impairment and malfunction of Patients with Spinal Cord Injuries:
A Lamb, B Warren, B Dytor, B Simmons, M Watkins (MCSI)
- 16:30-16:50 Bed Capacity issues & CQC Recommendations for patients with SCI Mr F Jamil
- 16:50-17:00 Discussion and Closure